

Agriscience Pathway

Agriscience I - Concentrator

Intermediate level topics include animal, plant, and soil sciences, agricultural career awareness, leadership and 21st Century skill development with opportunities in school-based ag enterprises.

Agriscience II - Capstone

Building on concepts taught in Agriscience I, advanced topics in animal, plant, and soil sciences, agricultural career awareness, leadership and 21st Century skill development with independent projects in school based ag enterprises.

Business Management Pathway

Advanced Computers - Concentrator

Intro to business technology and communication through digital media

Desktop Publishing - Capstone

Building on concepts of advanced computers and focusing on marketing, organizing and operating a business, including profit/loss, project management and team building skills.

Entrepreneurship/Self-employment Pathway

Business Essentials - Concentrator

Builds on marketing, sales and service content, twenty-first century skills, personal finance.

Career and Employment skills - Capstone

Builds on previous course to include further development of twenty first century skills, development of creativity and innovation skills, and advanced strategies and entrepreneurial concepts.